

DHL FREIGHT.

READY TO TAKE OFF WITH YOU.

Reliable end-to-end aerospace logistics for businesses of all sizes.

WHATEVER CHALLENGE IN AEROSPACE LOGISTICS YOU ARE FACING, WE TAKE IT ON!

No matter at what point of the aerospace value chain your company is positioned, overland transport solutions play a key role in the success of your business. From smallest systems of highest complexity up to oversized structures: finding the best and most efficient ways of transportation means gaining a decisive competitive advantage for the global challenges. No matter what the size of your business is, all you need is a strong, yet flexible logistics partner you can rely on 100%.

WHAT YOU NEED IS WHAT YOU GET: FIRST-CLASS AEROSPACE LOGISTICS EXPERTISE BY DHL FREIGHT.

A wide range of companies from all aerospace segments already benefit from the industry-leading expertise of DHL Freight: airlines, OEMs/manufacturers, engine companies, suppliers and MROs/parts distributors as well as defense and space firms.

DHL Freight provides transportation and logistics services across the industry's complete supply chain:

- Sourcing/Inbound Logistics
- Manufacturing Logistics
- Outbound/Distribution Logistics
- After Sales Logistics

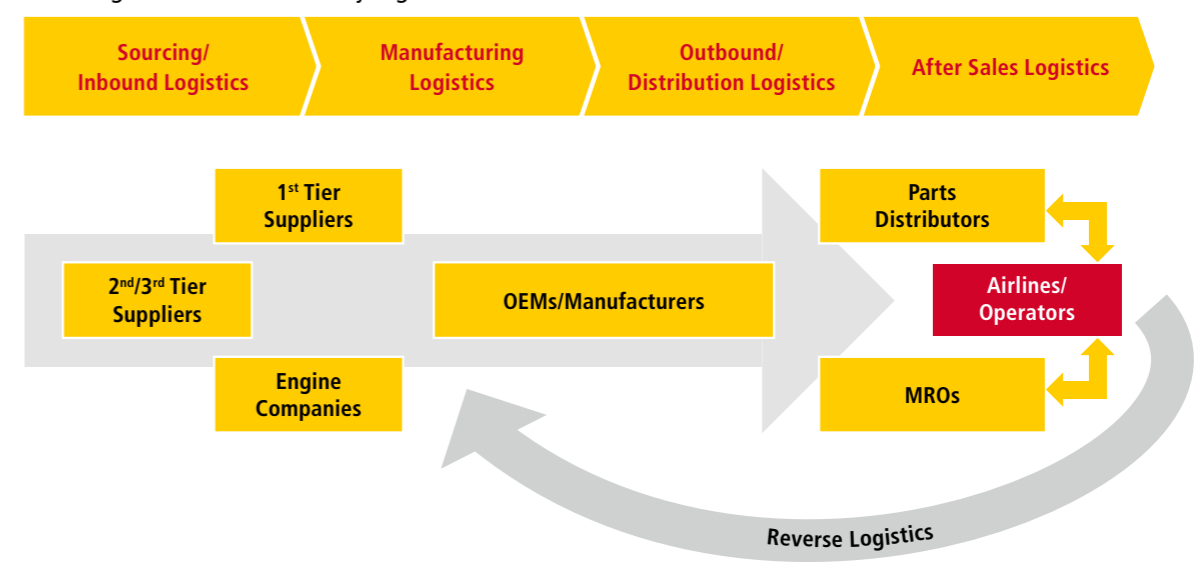

As a financially robust partner with more than 170 branch offices throughout Europe, parts of CIS (Commonwealth of Independent States), North Africa and the Middle East, we can guarantee you maximum flexibility backed up by a modern transport fleet.

THE STRAIGHTEST WAY TO SUCCESS: FROM STANDARD TO TAILOR-MADE SOLUTIONS – EVERYTHING FROM A SINGLE SOURCE.

Aerospace production and supply chains know no boundaries. Powered by an extensive road network of its own terminals combined with profound industry knowledge, DHL Freight can offer you the most suitable transport solution for your business: from full loads (FTL), part loads (PTL) or less than truckload (LTL) up to elaborated control tower set-ups that monitor, optimize and steer your shipments' flow. No wonder that DHL Freight has been selected the global leading transportation provider for one of the world's biggest airplane manufacturers. After a closer look at the comprehensive DHL portfolio of products and services you will certainly agree that the sky is the only limit.
